

Project Design PhaseSolution Architecture

Date	06 July 2026
Team Members	Jyothi Swaroop, Bhu Mahesh, Mohith
Project Name	Customer Registry System
Maximum Marks	4 Marks

Solution Architecture

The Customer Registry System follows a three-tier MERN architecture. Users interact with a React frontend that communicates securely with a Node.js and Express.js backend through REST APIs. The backend performs authentication, complaint management, customer registration, and status tracking while storing all data in MongoDB. Administrators access a dedicated dashboard to manage complaints, update statuses, and monitor customer requests.

Architecture Diagram

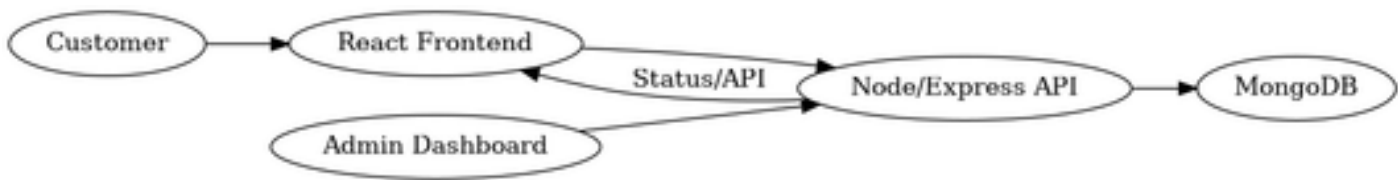

Figure 1: Architecture of the Customer Registry System